GENERAL ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

ORDER

The 17th February, 2014

S.R.O. No.52/2014— As per the provision U/r 3 of the Odisha Library Attendant Service, Group-C (Methods of Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 2012 there shall be constituted separate cadres in respect of the posts of Library Attendants in a Department of Government and as per the provision U/r 4, the said post shall be filled up by way of promotion from amongst the Group 'D' employees. As per the provision U/r 5 in order to be eligible for promotion, a candidate must—

- (a) have passed at least the Class 10 or an equivalent examination of a recognized Board, Council or University, as the case may be, and
- (b) have rendered at least 10 years of service in Group 'D' scale of pay.

In view of the above criteria none is available to be considered for promotion to the post of Library attendant in the L.R.'s Library in Law Department.

As the post of Library Attendant is required to be filled up immediately in public interest, Government after careful consideration and by invoking the relaxation provision U/r 12 of the Odisha Library Attendant Service, Group-C (Methods of Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 2012, have been pleased to relax these rules to the extent that selection of Library Attendant for L.R.'s Library in Law Department be made from amongst the eligible Group-D employees working in all the Departments of Secretariat.
